AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs and Hearse

BRIMFIELD, Mass., 20th Dec. '55.
Dr. J. C. Aven: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for coughs, hearseness, influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a cold, is your Cherry Pectoral.
Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of Utica, N. Y., writes: "I have used y ur Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it to be the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should somer pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Oroup, Whooping Couph, Instrumenta.

Springerial, Miss., Feb. 7, 1856.

Brother Ayer: I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy for the cure of Whooping Couph, Oroup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.

ine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D. AMOS LEE, Monterey, Ia., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious influenza, which confined me is doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman. The first does relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one-half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

WEST MANCHESTER, Pa., Feb. 4. 1856. Sir: Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man whas labored under an affection of the lungs for the last 44 years.

HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant. years.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., Albion, Monroe County, Iowa, writes Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

Asthma, Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its CONSUMPTION.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Som no human aid can reach; but even to those the Cherry Pec no human aid can reach; but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

Astor House, N. Y. City, March 5, 1856.

Doctor Ayer, Lowell: I feel it a duty and pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wile. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours, with gratitude and regard.

OBLANDO SHELBY, of Shelbyville.

CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, MATTINGS, ORLANDO SHELBY, of Shelbyville. Consumptives, do not despair until you have tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Phila. Ledger.

Free Love in Ohio. The alarming progress which Free Love doctrines are making in Ohio is indicated by the fact that at a recent election in Berlin Heights, the Free Love party elected its entire ticket in the face of the most strenuous opposition of the sane men left in that locality. In view of this and other facts, the Cleveland Herald says:

The case of Berlin is a sad one, and the respectable portion of its inhabitants are entitled to the sympathy of all good citizens. It is one of the sympathy of all good citizens. It is one of the most charming towns in Ohio, has an intelligent, upright, and virtuous population, who are gent, apright, and virtuous population, who are grieved beyond endurance by the existence among them of a sect which propagates doctrines the most revolting, and practice what they preach. The good people of the town will be forced to sacrifice their property, rupture the ties which bind them to their chosen homes, and find else-where the comforts they had hoped there to enjoy, or a public sentiment must be brought to bear upon those who would turn that beautiful place into a brothel, and force them to leave the spot their presence pollutes.

People, other than those daily in contact with this moral Free Love leprosy at Berlin, little dream of the foot-hold gained in Eric county.

Four acres on the Heights—as lovely a spot as nature boasts—is now devoted to the purposes of this association. When the "Water Cure" was consumed, the fraternity gathered in the barn, which was temporarily fitted up. Since then, various shanties have been erected and building with such rapidity that five houses is progressing with such rapidity that five houses have been erected within four weeks. Active measures are in progress to re-build upon the site of the "Water Cure" an institution to be known as "Love Cure." Here persons of both sexes can come, and finding their affinities, pair with each other. This is the treatment, and we proclaim it, disgusting as it is, that the people of Northern Ohio may know the full extent of this moral pestilence. Carriages run to and from the "Cure" to the depot regularly, and the arrivals and departures are of daily occurrence.

The "association" numbers about 30, and an accession is to be made of about forty within the next six months. This association has a paper called the "Age of Freedom," issued weekly, and not only sent to such as order, but it is slip-ped at night under the doors of the villagers, and left upon their door sills, and the decent portion of that community are sadly grieved that such mid-night prowlers are thus attempting to undermine the virtue of their sons and daughters. From the copy of the "Age" before us, we select one entire paragraph, so that there can be no charge of perverting its meaning by severing it from the context. It reads thus: "MARRIAGE IS THE SLAVERY OF WOMAN-Free Love is the freedom and equality of Woman and Man; Polygamy is Marriage multiplied—FREE LOVE IS MARRIAGE ABOLISHED!

No wonder the women of Berlin, indignant beyond self-control, met the monster who was transporting his vile edition to the post office, and seizing his papers burned them in the public street. What woman who has a daughter will rebuke these mothers? What father who has a son would come to the rescue of such a career of moral filth? Such is the state of matters at Berlin, and with perfect plainness of speech we have deemed it our duty to discuss them. THE EMPEROR NAPOLEON.—Yesterday he was in the Bois de Boulogne without escort, and was walking about with the Empress and the Imperial Prince. I happened this afternoon to be a witness to the almost rash way in which he sets at naught precautions which most men in his situation would be likely to take. Passing through the Tuileries gardens, between 3 and 4 o'clock this afternoon, I saw the Emperor alone, standing on the steps of little staircase leading from his study to the reserved garden, which is only fenced off from the public promenade by a railing not more than forty yards from the palace, and a railing which anybody might jump over. For at THE EMPEROR NAPOLEON.—Yesterday he was ing which anybody might jump over. For at least a quarter of an hour he remained alone, leaning on the banisters in an attitude of con-templation, with his legs crossed, and smoking a templation, with his legs crossed, and smoking a segar. The day being very fine, thousands of people were walking in the gardens, and great numbers leaned over the railing to stare at him. When at length, being summoned by an usher to give audience to some one, he went into his study, but left the outer-door open. Whatever may be said against him, truth commands one to say that pusillanimity is not one of his character-

Middle States, Squire Williamson reigns as preme judge in all matters of taste, especially in fine arts. He sets up to be the most knowing all payments from the state treasury of twenty dollars and under, and after the 4th day of July, fine arts. He sets up to be the most knowing man in town, and not in law only, but in all departments of science. Now and then he overshoots the mark. One of the neighbors, an intelligent mechanic, having a fine taste for natural history, spent a great deal of his time and labor in preparing a cabinet of stuffed birds, arranging them as "natural as life" on perches around his shop. The Squire was very fond of dropping in from time to time, to find fault with the arrangment of the specimens. He admitted the skill of the man in skinning and stuffing them, but the hapit of the bird was not exactly hit in the way he stands.

But his owlship did not wait to be pulled; he darted out his bill and gave the Squire's foreflinger a grip that he will carry the mark for many a day. Falling back out of his chair in a fright, and seeing a smile of satisfaction on Rogers, he saw at once he had been sold. IT Speaking of the funeral discourse of Col. Benton, delivered by Rev. Mr. Cowan, the St. Louis News says:

The preacher dwelt on the universality of Death, and then showed to whom death is "gain," and how it is gain He had the extreme pleasure of stating, in his sermon, what had not previously been published, in regard to Col. Benton's religious state of mind, in his latter days. He had openly avowed his trust in God, and died with prayers on his lips. A relative who had been absent from his bedside, a few weeks, having returned, Col. Benton reached and took his ha saying "I have made my peace with God. I am very happy—I am very happy."

In evidence that the illustrious deceased was, even in the most stormy periods of his life, no stranger to religious emotions and aspirations, stranger to religious emotions and aspirations, Mr. Cowan mentioned in his sermon, an incident that occurred in Benton, Scott county, in this State, in the year 1851. Mr. Cowan was, at the Congress,) attended the house of worship. The sermon was from the text, 'Almost thou persuad said Mr. Cowan, 'Col. Benton approached me, and taking both my hands in his, and putting his case, sir. It is all my own case,' and burst into a

These facts so gratifying to the surviving family of the deceased, will be received with unfeigned pleasure by every Christian in the land. The Reverened Speaker stated that Colonel Benton's mother was a religious woman, an Episcopalian; and to her devoted teachings and faithful prayers, and to the example and influence of his equally prayerful and pious wife, who preceded him to the grave, the Minister was inclined to attribute the joyful evidences of Christian faith, with which the deceased statesman left the world.

Rogers, the bird fancier, was vexed at the Squire's criticisms and self conceit, and resolved upon fixing him. A friend from the country one day brought him a live owl of beautiful plumage and Rogers gladly took it of him and set it up in one corner of the shop on a shelf. Presently the Squire was passing; he asked him in His are Squire was passing; he asked him in. His eye caught sight of the new addition to his cabinet, and he exclaimed:

take effect on the first day of July next.

The Ohio treasury system was similar to that in this state. The Treasurer had full control of the public funds, which he deposited with banks or individuals at interest for his own benefit, or else used them in speculations. The salary was only nominal and the use of the funds was the compensation, or sinecure, for services rendered. The consequence of this loose method of man aging the state treasury was the large defalcations which occurred in that state a short time ago.

We trust the system which is to be inaugurated n Ohio, on the 1st of July, will be thoroughly tested. It is similar in its provisions to the In dependent Treasury of the general government which has worked well and is now generally approved. We see no reason why the system is not equally applicable to the fiscal affairs of a State. A State should have no connection with the pritime, holding a protracted meeting in that place, and Colonel Benton being there, (a candidate for rectly. Its agents should not be permitted to use rectly. Its agents should not be permitted to use the public funds for their individual purposes .-Sound policy dictates, for the safety of the State and the good of its citizens, that its public revenues should be collected in a safe currency, one which its laws recognize as such; that it should be kept in a treasury of its own, and that it should be disbursed only as appointed by law, upon duly authenticated vouchers. A system which permits the use of public funds by financial officers is not only demoralizing, but hazardous. The treasury system of Indiana needs thorough revision and reform and the attention of her citizens should be directed to it.

The editor of the Tribune daily tells his readers, and is very anxious that we should also tell others, that the late Kansas convention did not put into their constitution a provision giving free negroes the right to vote. Well, will he have the goodness to explain why it was that the convention, after an excited discussion, refused to put in the word "white" so as to give the right of sugrage to "white male citizens?" Why did Gen. Jim Lane, one of the majority who refused to put in the word "white," announce to the convention that he belonged to the ultra or abolition wing of the Free State party, and that ry, with perfect accuracy, the various phases of the recent eclipse of the sun. The clock, as is known, in addition to declaring the time, presents wished to exclude negroes from the right of suffrage, why did it not, as in the constitution of Indiana and of nearly all the other States, put in to doubt as to what was their intention? We suppose the editor of the Tribune will say that by the Dred Scott decision, negroes are de-clared not to be citizens, and that therefore the word "white" would be superfluous. Well, constitutions ought to be very explicit, and even if the word "white" was superfluous it could do no harm to put it in, and would occupy very little space. But the majority refused to insert it, orodtitution repudiate the Dred Scott decision and nstant, steady, uniform insensible operation true, we have not much expectation that negro votes will ever be cast in Kansas, for the people of all parties will not permit such an outrage but that the majority who composed this conven tion intended that they should vote on the adoption of that instrument we think there can be but little doubt .- New Albany Ledger

Washington, April 22.

SENATE—The only business of interest during the morning hour was the presentation by Mr. Seward, of N. Y., of the reply of the American Telegraph Co. in refutation of the allegation contained in the recent memorial of Amos Kendall and the Morse Telegraph interest.

The document was referred to the Judiciary committee and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Mason's resolutions respecting Paraguay were taken up and discussed until the morning hour had expired, when the deficiency appropriation bill was taken up and debated.

Mr. Seward introduced a bill, which was read twice, to secure the property expatraction of a line. twice, to secure the prompt construction of a line pending. Adjourned.

HOUSE—The House proceeded to the consideration of Mr. Morrell't bill donating land to the several States for the benefit of agriculture and The House refused to table the bill by a vote of 84 ayes to 108 nayes.

Mr. Cobb made a speech against the bill, which passed, 104 against 101. The bill grants six millions three hundred and forty thousand acres of land to be apportioned to each State—equal to twenty thousand acres for each Senator and Rep-war during that period.

Mr. Savage reported the bill from the Committee on Invalid Pensioners and made an earnest speech in its favor.

PLAN OF THE LOTTERY.

The numbers from 1 to 50,000, corresponding with those numbers on the Tickets printed on seperate slips of paper, are encircled with small tin tubes and placed in one wheel.

The first 457 prizes, similarly printed and encircled, are placed in another wheel.

The wheels are then revolved, and a number is drawn from the wheel of numbers, and at the same time a Prize is drawn from the other wheel. The number and prize drawn out are opened and exhibited to the audience, and register ed by the Commissioners; the prize being placed against the number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the prizes are drawn out.

The 5,000 Prizes of $20 will be determined by the last figure of the number that draws the $70,000 Prize. For example, if the number draws the $70,000 Prize of records of the number that draws the $70,000 Prize of records of the number that draws the $70,000 Prize of records of the number that draws the $70,000 Prize of records of the number ends with No. 1, then all the tickets where the number ends in 1, will be entitled to $20. If the number ends with No. 2 then all the tickets where the number ends with No. 2 then all the tickets where the number ends in 2 will be entitled to 20, and so on to 0
